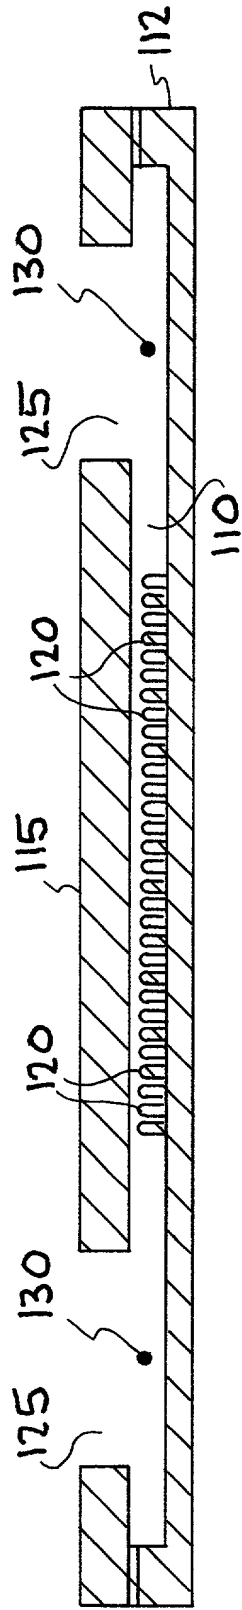

FIG. 1A

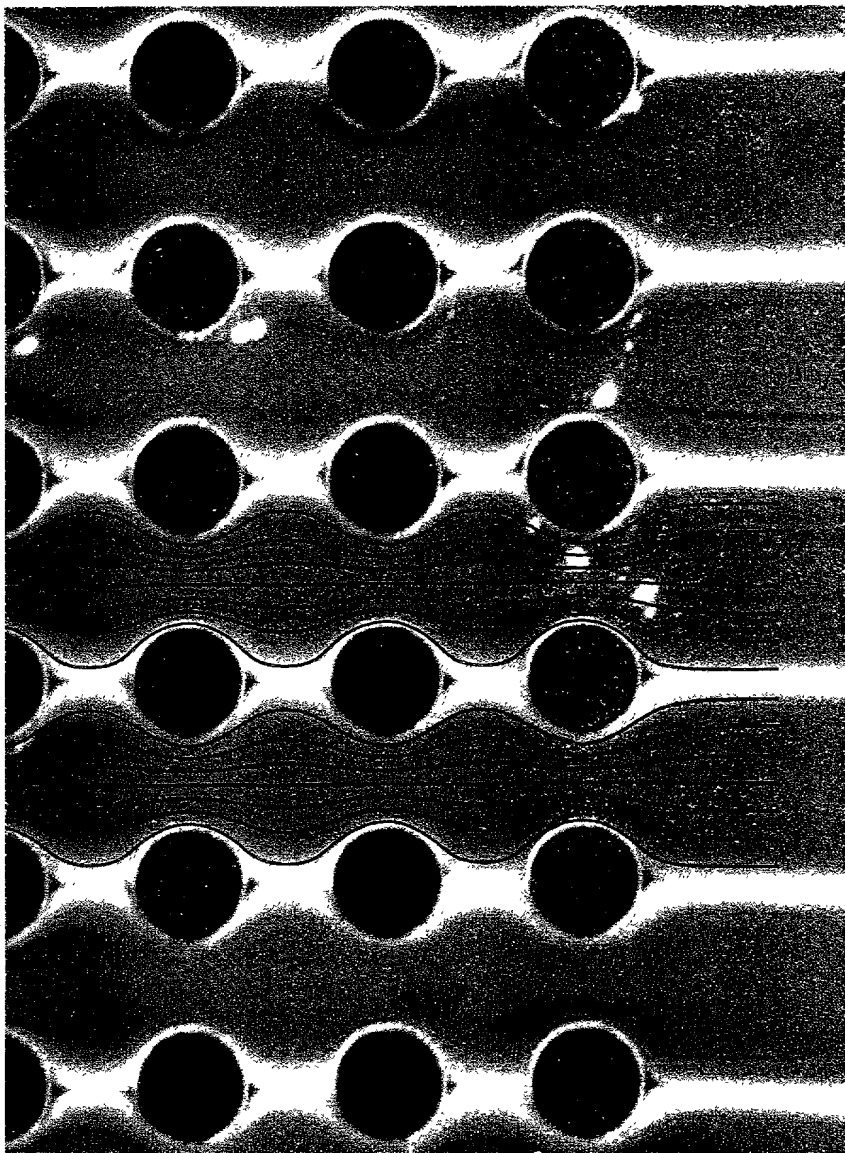

FIG. 2

A high-contrast, black and white photograph showing a close-up of a textured surface, possibly a book cover or endpaper. The image features a repeating pattern of dark, rounded rectangular shapes, resembling rivets or studs, arranged in vertical columns. These are separated by lighter, wavy horizontal lines that create a sense of depth and movement. The overall texture is grainy and detailed, with strong highlights and deep shadows.

A black and white abstract pattern featuring a repeating diamond shape formed by wavy lines, creating a textured, woven appearance. The pattern consists of multiple rows of interlocking diamond shapes. Each diamond is defined by a series of parallel, wavy lines that create a sense of depth and texture, resembling a woven fabric or a topographical map. The overall effect is a complex, rhythmic visual texture.
